

Defining the 'Enemy' of Fearlessness

conflict between “survivor leaders” and “Sacred Warrior leaders” in ISOF as an organization. De Becker, like so many other anti-fearlessness writers, is wanting to revalue ‘fear’ into a natural and normal survival mechanism that actually is a “gift.” I’ve had many people in and outside of ISOF say,

Learning about 'fear' in this context, is actually learning all about fearlessness simultaneously—my experience writing Spectrum of 'fear' confirmed this. Trungpa has provided guiding phrases for the ISOF Project and my own thinking and living for several years since co-founding ISOF oppression, whereby “oppression” is seen exactly for what it is and how it works as the weave in most contemporary cultures on the planet. Fearlessness vision, also sees the alternatives to the human condition and maintains the “flame”
